

Free Field Trips

The Gateway Greenhouse Education Center currently has openings in their Field

Trip Program for NYC schools in April, May and June.

All activities are conducted at Floyd Bennett Field in Brooklyn, NY, part of the Gateway National Recreation Area.

Students will participate in:

- 1. An Awareness Program on Asian Long Horned Beetles
- 2. Hands on Tree Planting and tree related activities.
- 3. A short hike to a nearby beach to study floatable debris and its effect on nature.
- 4. Every student will plant a tree.

Picnic facilities, BBQ sites and cafeteria available. Handball, basket ball, soccer and baseball fields also available.

No food is sold or provided onsite.

Contact the Friends of Gateway at 212 228 3126 for an information packet and reservations or the Project Manager Mike Steffens at 646 256 1941