

BLUE VISION MID-ATLANTIC CONFERENCE

FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 2005

National Aquarium in Baltimore

Join with leaders from the Blue Frontier Campaign, Coast Alliance, Clean Ocean Action, Baltimore Aquarium and more than 50 other members of the Blue Movement from

New York to North Carolina. Find out what's happening in Washington that may effect your work on coastal and ocean issues, and participate with your colleagues in discussions and workshops on how to turn the tide towards a real Seaweed Rebellion.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

9-9:30 Coffee, Juice, Danish & Bagels

MORNING Greetings and Welcome, including presentation on Aquarium's outreach work by Glen Page, Director of Conservation. Introduction of groups and their key issues. Presentation on Federal bills and policies that can impact the Mid-Atlantic by Beth Millemann, Ocean Policy Project.

LUNCH Speaker(s), invited: House Ocean Co-Chairs from Mid-Atlantic, Senator Lautenberg from NJ.

AFTERNOON Mid-Atlantic Strategies for Change—Three Working models
Cindy Zipf – ED Clean Ocean Action
Will Baker – ED Chesapeake Bay Foundation
Todd Miller – ED North Carolina Coastal Federation
Group discussion on broader Mid-Atlantic collaboration
Training for district/media work to improve impact of Mid-Atlantic groups on Congress and national ocean/coastal agenda.

EARLY EVENING 4:30-5:30 Behind the Scenes tour of Aquarium

5:30 Reception with beer/wine/food and special guests including member(s) of US Commission on Ocean Policy

Register Early!

THERE IS ONLY ROOM FOR 60 ATENDEES.

REGISTRATION COST $20.

FINAL REGISTRATION
DATE APRIL 1.

~~~~~
E-mail registration info to Helvarg@bluefront.org:

1. Name
2. Organization
3. Address
4. Website
5. E-mail address
6. Mail check for $20 made out to Blue Frontier Campaign or mail registration (answers 1-5) and check to:

Blue Frontier Campaign PO Box 19367 Washington DC 20036

Questions call David Helvarg 202-387-8030 or Cindy Zipf 732-872-0111