"THE 7 HABITS OF HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL COMMUNICATORS"

Dr. Cynthia Barnett

Cynthia Barnett, Ed.D. is noted for her warmth, vitality, and enthusiasm. She has over 25 years of diversified experience in education at all levels (K-College) including 11 years in administration and guidance at the secondary level. She is a compassionate leader who knows how to bring ever higher standards of excellence to those she works with.

Dr. Barnett is a recognized speaker, author and consultant. She specializes in teaching people and organizations how to enhance the quality of their lives, and become more resilient so that they would be more successful in life and in business. Those who have attended her seminars come away with a fresh sense of mission and vision. They now possess the tools to shape their own lives through inspiration and a recharged self-esteem.

Dr. Barnett's dynamic and interactive presentations include practical exercises. She gives you tools you can use to maintain and expand the improvements you experience during the course of the presentation.

- Trained Facilitator and Coach for Franklin Covey's "Seven Habits of Highly Effective People"
- Graduate of Franklin Covey's "What Matters Most" program
- Personally trained by Jack Canfield, America's #1 Peak Performance, self-esteem leader, and co-author of the Chicken Soup for the Soul Series.
